NOW ON SALE.

A CHINESE DICTIONARY CANTONESE DIALECT.

BY DR. E. J. EITEL.

—CROWN OCTAVO, PP. 1018.

HONGKONG, 1877-1883.
 Part I. A-K. $2.50
 Part II. K-M. $2.50
 Part III. M-T. $3.00
 Part IV. T-Y. $3.00

A Reduction of ten per cent. will be allowed to purchasers of ten or more copies.

This Standard Work on the Chinese Language, constructed on the basis of Kangxi's Imperial Dictionary, contains all Chinese characters in practical use, and while alphabetically arranged according to the sounds of the oldest dialect of China, the Cantonese, it gives also the Mandarin pronunciation of all characters explained in the book, so that its usefulness is by no means confined to the Cantonese Dialect, but the work is a practically complete thesaurus of the whole written language of China, ancient and modern, as used all over the Empire, whilst its introductory chapters serve the purposes of a philological guide to the student.

A Supplement, arranged for being sound and used by itself, containing a List of the Radicals, an Index, and a List of Surnames, will be published and sold separately.

THE CHINA REVIEW.

PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY, TENTH YEAR.

THIS Review, which was intended to meet the wants of many students of Chinese caused by the discontinuance of "Notes and Queries on China and Japan," has reached its Thirtieth Volume. The Review discusses those topics which are important in the minds of students of the "Far East" and about which every intelligent person connected with China or Japan is desirous of acquiring trustworthy information. It includes many interesting Notes and original papers on the Arts, Sciences, Philosophy, Politics, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Natural History, Antiquities, and Social Manners and Customs, etc., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, and the Far East generally. Recently a new department has been taken, and the Review now gives papers on Trade, Commerce, and Descriptive notes of Travel by well-known writers. It was thought that by extending the scope of the Review in this direction, the Magazine would be made more generally useful.

The Review department receives special attention, and endeavours are made to present a careful and concise record of Literature on China, etc., and to give critiques embodying sketches of the most recent works on such topics. Authors and Publishers are requested to forward works to "Editor, China Review, care of China Mail Office, Hongkong, and London."

The Notes and Queries are still continued and form an important means of obtaining from and diffusing among students knowledge on obscure points.

The Correspondents' column also affords further and greater facilities for the interchange of views and discussion of various topics.

Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, or any of the Modern Languages are received. The papers are contributed by the members of the various Societies, the periodical Customs and Hongkong Services, and also by the Missionary bodies amongst whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is assiduously cultivated. Amongst the regular contributors are Drs. Chalmers, Edin, Brechtner, Hart, and Hance, Professor Legge, and Messrs. Balfour, Wadley, Stent, Phillips, McIntyre, Groot, Jameson, Faber, Kopsch, Parker, Playfair, Giles, and Pilon,—all well-known names, indicative of sound scholarship and thorough mastery of their subject.

The Subscription is fixed at $6.50 per annum, postage included,—payable in advance.

Orders for binding volumes will be promptly attended to; Address, "Manager, China Mail Office."
